GOVERNOR GIVEN OVATION.

Tallahasseeans Honor Gilchrist Upon His Return Home.

Tallahassee, Sept. 13.—No Governor of Florida has ever been given a more rousing and heartfelt ovation than that accorded to Governor Albert W. Gilchrist, who returned Saturday at the noon hour from his extended trip, which extended from New York, where he addressed Tammany Hall, to Seattle, where he sang Florida's praises at the Alaska-Yukon Exposition. He was met at the depot by the Gilchrist band, the mayor and city officials, members of the Chambers of Commerce, members of the press and citizens, who escorted him to the Leon hotel, where he made a brief but pleasing address.

During his absence Governor Gilchrist has made many notable speeches—speeches that have been heard by representative people from all sections of the country. He has sung the praises of Florida and the South in a fair and enthusiastic manner, enlightening thousands as to social, political and economic conditions in "Dixie." He has been well received at all points, and has enjoyed his trip thoroughly.

Denham-Bishop.

A wedding interesting to Gainesville citizens was solemnized in Ocala last Sunday at 1:30 o'clock, when William L. Denham of the Gainesville Sun and Mrs. Nettie Barco Bishop, were united by the Rev. R. H. Barnett of the Methodist church. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride and was only attended by relatives of the contracting parties. No invitations were issued, only "At Home" cards being sent out announcing that the couple would be at their future home in East Gainesville after the 20th inst. Before the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served and they left on the afternoon Seaboard train for a bridal tour through the northern part of the state and portions of Georgia. The bride is a daughter of Col. and Mrs. Nick Barco of Crystal river and a niece of Hon. J. M. Barco, former register of the United States land office in this city during the Cleveland administration. As a resident of Ocala for a number of years she was a social favorite and highly esteemed. The groom is too well known in Gainesville to need any introduction and his work upon the Sun as city editor is a record of itself. The advent of the newly married people in this city will be looked forward to with pleasure. At the wedding the bride wore a stylish suit of tan, hat, gloves, etc., to match.

Among the relations, guests at the wedding were Col. and Mrs. Nic Barco of Crystal river, Mrs. Armstrong of Live Oak, Mr. Warren Barco of Valdosta, Mrs. Allen of Crystal river, Mrs. Syd Carter of Gainesville and Mr. and Mrs. Knoblock of Martin.

To the happy couple, The Elevator extends the heartiest congratulations and well wishes for their future life.—Gainesville Elevator.

Mr. and Mrs. Denham were visitors in this city for several days of this week and were guests of Mr. Denham's cousin, Col. Ira J. Carter and family and F. R. McCormick and family. Mrs. Denham, formerly Mrs. Bishop, has a number of friends here. She is a sister of Mrs. Alice Armstrong, of this city.

Christian Church Organized.

An organization of twenty-five members was the result of the White Bros. tent meeting just held here. Rev. Sam J. White remained over Sunday to be at the first meeting. A training class for service was organized and every member became a Bible student in this class. The fifty lessons outlined for this class covers the greater part of the New Testament. Mr. White expects to be back with us December 9th, at which time he hopes to perfect a much greater work. His strong plea for the Bible and the Bible alone is fast convincing people that traditions, dogmas and human creeds are non-essentials to salvation and causing them to accept Christ as their creed, the Bible as their guide, and Christian their name. Communion services will be administered every Lord's day.

We count it a glorious work begun and much love and credit is due to the one who has so nobly promoted the cause in this city. May his labors be crowned with continued success.

A far-reaching opinion, one which will have great effect on bankruptcy cases in Florida, has been handed down by Judge J. W. Locke of the United States court. Briefly stated, Judge Locke has ruled that in bankruptcy proceeding an insurance policy of the defendants shall not be considered a part of the assets liable to conversion into cash.
